

WHEN TO START USING TOPICAL CORTICOSTEROIDS?

As soon as symptoms
appear (redness, itching, roughness)

WHEN TO STOP USING TOPICAL CORTICOSTEROIDS?

When symptoms
disappear

WWW.FONDATIONECZEMA.ORG

*Bibliography:

Manjunatha Kalavala, Caroline M. Mills, Colin C. Long & Andrew Y. Finlay - Journal of Dermatological Treatment. 2007; 18: 319–320

C.C.LONG, C.M.MILLS AND A.Y.FINLAY - British Journal of Dermatology 1998; 138: 293–296

C.C.LONG AND A.Y.FINLAY - Clinical and Experimental Dermatology 1991; 16: 444–447

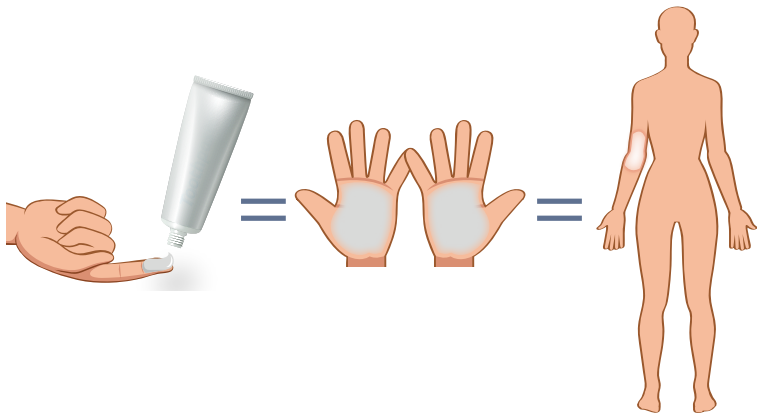

Eczema
Foundation

Corporate Foundation
of Pierre Fabre Laboratories

How should you use topical corticosteroids?

One adult fingertip unit treats an area equivalent to the surface area of two adult palms*

1 tube of 30 g = 1 application on the whole body of an adult

